

Sexuality and Justice Student Paper Conference

Emory School of Law

Saturday, November 17, 2012 - Gambrell Hall, Faculty Library Room G575

- BREAKFAST (coffee and muffins will be provided) - 9:30am – 10am

10am – 11:20am

Brian Kaufman – The Ambivalence of Colonial Residue: Sexual Identity Construction, Politics and Culture in Zimbabwe and South Africa

Abena Bryan – A Deadly Defense?: The Homosexual Advance Defense and its use as Sufficient Provocation to Justice Violence against Homosexuals in the United States and Australia

Nicola Menchetti – Employment Discrimination: United States & Columbia

11:25am – 12:45pm

Alicia LeCroy – The Legacy of Separation: Roma Sterilizations in Czechoslovakia and their Treatment Post-Independence

Amanda Hodgson – The Sterilization of the Autonomy Model: Where the Right to Privacy and the Right to Parent Disconnect

Jessie Brown – In the Wake of Discarding Discretion: Sexual Orientation Asylum Claims in Australia and the United Kingdom

- LUNCH (sandwiches will be provided) – 12:45pm – 1:30pm

1:30pm – 2:50pm

Melissa Bonnington – “Gay” as Defamatory: United States and South African Approaches

Lauren Young – Protection and Loopholes for Transsexual and Transgender People in Employment Discrimination

Natasha Steinberg – A “Spouse” By Any Other Name: Inheritance and Survivorship Rights of Same-Sex Couples in the United States and Canada

2:55pm – 4:15pm

Vicki Bass – How Societal Pressures and Misconceptions Contribute to a Deprivation of Transgenders’ Right to Medical Care in the Prison Systems in the United States and Canada

Couri Wolfe – Abuse and Mistreatment of Transgender Prisoners Before and During Incarceration: Comparative Policy Analysis in Treatment of A Vulnerable Prison Population

Yvana Mols – Transgender Identity and the Risks and Benefits of a Medicalized GID Diagnosis for Incarcerated Individuals in the US and Canada

RSVP: smarvel@emory.edu