

A PRESENTATION BY:
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
CARRIE N. BAKER, SMITH COLLEGE

THE MOVEMENT AGAINST THE COMMERCIAL SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND TRAFFICKING OF AMERICAN YOUTH

This paper tracks the development of U.S. social movements against the commercial sexual exploitation and domestic trafficking of youth in the late 20th and early 21st centuries, exploring how certain political frameworks were leveraged to challenge the neglect and criminalization of American youth in the sex trades in both law and public discourse.

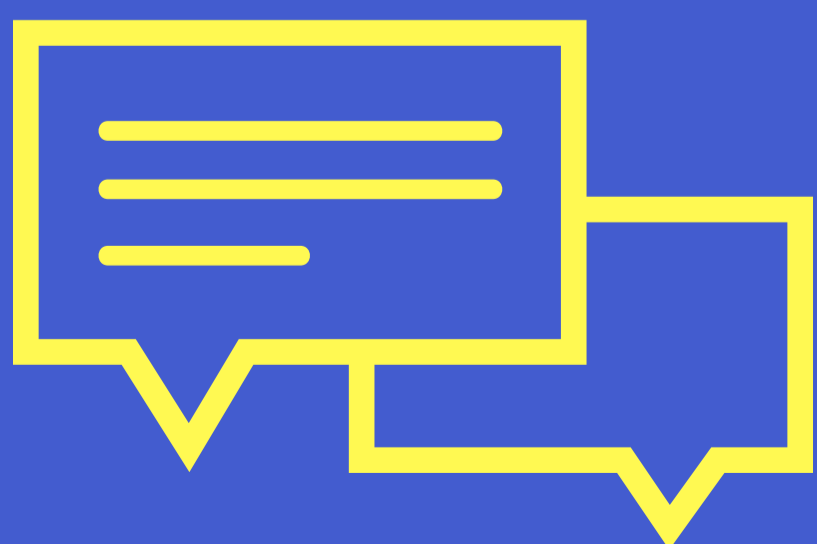

01.23.17 | MONDAY | 4PM

EMORY LAW | G575

EMORY UNIVERSITY

Vulnerability and the Human Condition Initiative

E-MAIL REZROL@EMORY.EDU TO RSVP BY 1/19